

MISS SHARON LEE FELKER
... Plans 1958 Wedding

Torrance Herald
Social World
EDNA CLOYD, Editor

Thirty FA 8-5164 JULY 18, 1957
Sharon L. Felker to Wed C. Hayden

Romantic news was disclosed to a large number of guests last Sunday afternoon at a cocktail party given by Mrs. Laura Felker at her 3429 Paseo del Campo home when she announced the engagement of her daughter, Sharon Lee, to Charles Herbert Hayden, Jr. The future bride is a third generation representative of two of the area's first families. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Felker, 1527 Post Ave., and Mrs. Claudene Defouri of Redondo Beach.

Miss Felker was graduated from St. Mary's Academy in Inglewood and this fall will be a senior at Mt. St. Mary's College in Brentwood where she is a member of the Tau Alpha Zeta sorority. Miss Felker is a secondary education major.

The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert Hayden Sr., of Inglewood. He is a graduate of the Inglewood High School and is a senior at Loyola college where he is a business administration major. He is affiliated with Sigma Phi Zeta fraternity.

The wedding is being planned for the summer of 1958.

At Sunday's party, the toast to the future bride was offered by her grandfather, Mr. W. A. Felker. An effective yellow and white decor was used in decorating.

The guest list included sorority sisters of the bride-elect, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom-to-be and family members.

Lovely Party Compliments Don Mitchells

Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Bernard Murray of Hermosa Beach honored Ens. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell (Robin Gensley) at a surprise party at their 1775 Valley Dr. home on Monday, July 8, exactly one month following the Mitchells' marriage at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

This was the first opportunity that Southern California friends had to greet the couple who arrived July 6 from their cross-country motor tour.

Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Michael Hornick and Mrs. John Roethlisberger. Also assisting were Bill and Bernard Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lifton of Redondo Beach showed movies of the wedding and Mr. John Gensley, father of the bride, showed slides.

A beautifully appointed buffet table was arranged in the dining room. It was covered with pink tulle caught with large pink dahlias. The centerpiece was of pink ribbons and dahlias. Another smorgasbord table was arranged in the patio and the movies were also shown there.

A large number of guests from all over Southern California attended the party. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mitchell of Torrance, parents of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. John Gensley and son, Richard Gensley, of Hermosa.

From Torrance were: Messrs. and Mmes. Gordon Hinrichs, Bill McFarlane, Allen Moore, Herbert Irwin, Earle Campbell, Delbert Thomsen, Nat Williamson, Edward Rhone, Jack Anderson, Robert Beck, K. D. Figgins, Kelvin Figgins, Frank Ford Sr., and Ens. Frank Ford Jr., who was best man at the wedding.

Ens. and Mrs. Mitchell are now established in Long Beach where Ens. Mitchell has been assigned to the USS Mansfield.

SEE SOUTH PACIFIC

Enjoying luncheon at the Biltmore and the matinee performance of "South Pacific" last Saturday were Mrs. Jack Anderson, Mrs. Herman Mitchell, Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and daughter, Kathy.

MRS. KENNETH LEE NOBLES
... On Wedding Day

Cobbs - Nobles Vows Recited In Candlelight Church Rite

A lovely mid-summer wedding was solemnized last Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Narbonne Baptist Church when Miss Twila Cobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cobbs, 2350 24th Pl., Lomita, exchanged wedding vows with Kenneth Lee Nobles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson of San Pedro.

Standing before the place of ceremony, marked with white baskets of flowers against standards holding white candles, was the Rev. Robert A. Wells, who officiated at the marriage.

Mr. Cobbs escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was made of Chantilly lace and tulle detailed with a standup collar, lace sleeves, a bouffant tulle skirt down the front of which was a panner of the lace. A pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white feathers, orchids and carnations.

Miss Shirlene Bradshaw was the honor attendant wearing choral chiffon and carrying a matching nosegay of feathers and ribbons. Bridesmaids were Misses Jeanette Cooper and Rosanna Kennedy. Miss Cooper was in blue chiffon and Miss Kennedy in pink. Their nosegays were of pale pink feathers and ribbons.

Flower girls were Linda Nobles and Belinda Perry. They wore pale orchid frocks and carried yellow baskets of yellow feathers. The rings were brought to the altar by Billy Wells. The duties of best man were performed by Darrel Nobles, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Jim King and Jewell McKee.

Miss Marlene Cornthwaite played the wedding marches and accompanied Bill Turman who sang "O Perfect Love", "Together Life's Pathway We Tread" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Assisting at the reception held in the church hall were Mmes. Claude Fisher, Earl Houston, Earl Stroope, and Ollie Turman.

After a honeymoon, with destination unannounced, the couple will be at home in San Pedro.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne in June 1957. Her husband is a San Pedro High graduate.

RELATIVES HERE

Mrs. John McVey and family, of Kornblum Ave., are entertaining Mrs. McVey's niece and nephew, Gretchen Hardman and Tommy Singletary, both of Norfolk, Va.

The visitors are expected to continue on to San Diego to stay with relatives following their Torrance sojourn.

McNIELS HOME FROM NEW YORK

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph McNeil, 1644 Fern Ave., returned Sunday from a two weeks vacation. They went to New York by plane and were guests of friends at Valley Streams. During their stay, they attended "My Fair Lady," "Most Happy Fellow" and several other Broadway productions. Leaving New York, they flew to Oakland last Thursday remaining in the Bay area until Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. McNeil participated in a section bridge tournament held at the Lexington Hotel in Oakland.

Bon Voyage Party Fetes Pastor, Wife

Rev. and Mrs. John L. Taylor of the First Methodist Church were feted at a bon voyage party given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. King and the Rev. Donald J. Shelby, on Thursday evening, July 11, in the Friendship Room of the church.

Invited guests were members of the Official Board of the Church. Rev. and Mrs. Taylor left Monday, for a 2½ month tour of Europe and the Near East.

A color motif of red, white, and blue was employed on the refreshment table, which was centered with a miniature airplane surrounded by flags of each country the Taylors will visit.

Mrs. Stan Roberts and Mrs. Frank Fisher presided at the coffee service.

Others attending besides the honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Broatch, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMullen, Mrs. King McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roberts, Mrs. Richard Belden, Mr. and Mrs. William Speck, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mason and daughter, Sally, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sielaff, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holland, Mrs. Robert Goodale, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Christianson, Mrs. Sadie Almond, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brundin, Mr. and Mrs. John Strom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, and Mr. G. W. Roberts.

Carol Smith-James F. Moran Recite Vows in Church Rites

In her traditional white satin wedding gown on train, Miss Carol Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Naftal N. Smith, 1610 W. 211th St., became the bride of William Moran, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Moran of Compton, in a ceremony at 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 6, at the Compton Baptist Church.

Mr. Smith came with his daughter to the altar. Her gown had an overskirt of tulle, lace-edged sleeves and a neckline accented with seed pearls. A crown-shaped tiara covered with French lace and seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried white orchids encircled by white carnations.

Mrs. Sandi Alcantra was the matron of honor. She wore aqua taffeta and carried pink rosebuds.

The bevy of bridesmaids were all in aqua taffeta gowns and each carried a cascade of pink carnations. They were Misses Marlene Bryan, Colleen Morgan, Carolyn White, and Kathi Gann.

Luanne Buse in pink taffeta was the flower girl and Bobby Sanders carried the rings.

Paul Alcantra stood as best man and ushers were Dave Bryan, Chuck Hilton, Frank Moran and Joe Gann. Dave Kerr played the wedding marches and accompanied Gary Johnson who sang "True Love," "Always" and "Wedding Prayer."

The Rev. Morgan Gates officiated at the vow exchange. Guests were invited to a reception in Fellowship Hall at the church.

The newlyweds are now honeymooning in San Diego and Tijuana.

The bride was graduated in June from Gardena High School. Her husband is a Compton High graduate and completed two years at Compton Junior College.

Mrs. Sandi Alcantra was the matron of honor. She wore aqua taffeta and carried pink rosebuds.

AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. William Crotty spent from Saturday through Tuesday at the Statler Hotel where they attended the Western States Photographers convention.

OHIO VISITOR

Leaving Wednesday evening for San Francisco was Miss Carol Stull of Youngstown, O. who had spent a month here with her cousin, Mrs. William Thomas, 4905 Calle de Arboles.

MRS. JAMES F. MORAN
... Makes Promises

Mary Daniels Becomes Bride Of Ronald Alexander July 14

A medley of traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Pat Ouwendyk last Sunday afternoon when 250 wedding guests assembled at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist church to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Daniels and Ronald G. Alexander. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Beavers, 2722 Middlebrook Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, 4611 Ave. C. are parents of the bridegroom.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Judy Lata sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The Rev. Morgan Gates stood before a flower banked altar to officiate at the vow exchange.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father, Mr. Donald C. Daniels. She wore a gown of white tissue taffeta trimmed with white lace, white sequins and tiny pearls. A sweetheart crown of pearls secured her fingertip veil and she carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white orchids encircled by stephanotis.

Miss Julie Carcerano was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of yellow nylon chiffon and a matching sweetheart hat. Miss Carcerano carried a basket of yellow roses.

Bill Alexander stood as best man and ushers were Bob Knapp, Lloyd Daniels, Clyde Denham, Larry Denning, and Jim Patrick. Carolyn Davis registered the guests.

A reception was held at the church, and the couple left for a honeymoon. They will be at home at 2142 W. 242nd St., Lomita. Both the bride and the bridegroom were graduated in June from the Torrance High school.

Here for the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Meddy Ferrand of Omaha, Neb., and her aunt, Mrs. Wilma Perks of Hutchinson, Kan.

MRS. RONALD G. ALEXANDER
... Recites Vows

NO SUMMER VACATION . . . these members of the Las Vecinas Woman's Club carry on with their philanthropies. Last Tuesday, a group of members met at the home of Mrs. Robert Pinkney, 361 Paseo de Gracia, for a day of making curtains for the Physical Therapy building at Harbor General Hospital. Pictured here, hard at work, are (from left) Mrs. Lee Flanagan, Mrs. Robert Nielsen, philanthropy chairman, and Mrs. Henry Schmal, Las Vecinas president.